Hotel Overview

Popular with families and couples, Aruba Marriott Resort and Stellaris Casino features a sizable atrium lobby with marble and warm-wood trim, chandeliers, potted plants, and cushioned seating as well as an expansive courtyard containing cactus gardens, bamboo stands, palm trees, oversized pottery, and teak benches.

Furnished with thatched shades, a 100-yard-wide, 60-yard-deep section of Palm Beach fronting the resort slopes down to the turquoise sea. The Aruba Marriott Resort's lagoon-style pool features a rock-grotto waterfall that bends around a pool bar containing a swim-up counter. On the other side of the rock formation is a nine-person free-form spa tub. The pool's sundeck is furnished with cushioned lounge chairs. On the beach are both a windsurfing center and a watersports center.

LOCATION

Marriott Aruba Resort & Stellaris Casino is on the north end of Palm Beach, less than 6 miles from Oranjestad's shopping district, features sun and sea facilities and activities for couples and families.
