Hotel Overview

Galley Bay Resort, an intimate, Caribbean hideaway, delights guests with its refined, unpretentious atmosphere. Its glimmering turquoise seascapes and lush gardens create a relaxing, natural setting for those who want to decompress and escape from the world. The focal point is private, three-quarter-mile white sand beach on the clear, warm Caribbean, where you can recline in the shade of a palm tree, soak up the sun or enjoy a refreshing swim and complimentary non-motorized water-sports.

The boutique property's 98 guest rooms are set amid 40 acres of beautiful tropical gardens, providing a sense of privacy. Most accommodations are tucked into the landscape along the beach, so your next swim is just a few steps across the sand. Gauguin cottages, hidden amid the gardens, offer lagoon views and concealed individual plunge pools for private dips.

With two romantic open-air restaurants and three welcoming lounges, you'll never need to leave the property to enjoy three delicious meals each day, along with afternoon tea, evening hors d'oeuvres, by-the-glass wines and top-shelf beverages. Live entertainment, cocktail parties and Caribbean barbecues punctuate evenings at Galley Bay. By day, you can take advantage of a full array of water-sports equipment and instruction, lounge by the swimming pool or beach, or get active on the jogging trails or tennis courts.

LOCATION

Galley Bay Resort is located in St. John's, Antigua. The hotel is located 6,5 km from the capital city of St. John's and is nestled on a three-quarter mile stretch of Antigua's western coast.

Explore the rain forest off of Fig Tree Drive which is located 8 km from the hotel. The Grand Princess Casino & Entertainment Complex is located ten-and-one-half kilometers from the hotel.

PROPERTY AMENITIES

* The Sea Grape restaurant is open for all three meals daily. Warm, friendly service by our outstanding wait staff will make you feel right at home. Be sure to join in the festivities at our weekly Caribbean barbecue, when the gentle sound of the waves and live steel-drum music accompany your meal.

* The romance continues at Gauguin. Here, you'll dine in a cabana for two by flickering candlelight among the palm trees, literally steps from the sea, with only a thatched roof between you and the evening sky. The varied menu, which changes daily, blends the cuisines of the West Indies, the Pacific Rim and Europe. Enjoy a variety of wines by the glass with your dinner, perhaps starting with the curry-scented spinach soup with roasted corn or peppered yellowfin tuna, followed by pan-fried fillet of butterfish with sweet chili sauce and stir-fried vegetables. Top off your meal with fresh-brewed coffee and a sweet surprise, like the delightfully decadent crème brulee.

ROOM AMENITIES

* Galley Bay Resort features 98 guestrooms and cottages that sit between a bird-sanctuary lagoon and the Caribbean Sea. Beachfront rooms are in one-story West Indian-style buildings. Sea-view stone terraces with chairs and cocktail tables provide step-down access to the beach. Rooms and cottages include terra-cotta-tile floors and rattan furniture. Both offer air conditioning as well as ceiling fans. Mini-refrigerators are stocked daily with bottled water, soft drinks, and beer. Bathrooms include pedestal sinks and showers, no tubs.

* Here, you'll enjoy king beds, ceiling fans, satellite TV and mini-refrigerators, stocked with cool drinks. In-room amenities also include a wet bar, coffee/tea machine, a radio alarm clock and direct-dial phones. Step outside and you'll find a patio or balcony with a beach shower, and a pair of comfortable all-weather rattan chaises for lounging, reading, or an impromptu nap. The spacious bath includes a shower.

* Across the breezeway is a bath equipped with a shower and dressing area, with louvered windows providing fresh breezes and the refreshing sensation of a beach shower to complete the feeling of being immersed in nature. You can brew your morning coffee in your room, then step outside and relax on your concealed patio, with its adjoining private plunge pool--the perfect spot for a romantic dip.
