Hotel Overview

Even the air of San Domenico Palace Hotel is redolent with the unique history of the surroundings. Built around a monastery dating from the year 1400, with the original structure still intact, it is surrounded by a garden filled all year round with flowers of rare beauty.

The view that can be enjoyed from the terrace and the pool is extraordinary, too: a panorama which embraces the ancient Greek theatre and Etna's misty peak.

With its evocative architecture complemented by modern and efficient service, organisation and furnishing, the San Domenico Palace Hotel is a unique and unforgettable background for banquets and meetings. The ancient monastery church now houses the Congress Centre.
