Day 2: Le Meridien Barbarons

Breakfast at the hotel

Take a tour of the small town of Victoria.

A must-see is the colorful Victoria Market with its abundant of fish, fresh fruits and vegetables and spices as well as its wide variety of local crafts.

For shopping, take a trip to Kenwyn House, the old French Colonial House with its impressive display of jewelry including precious stones such as diamonds and Tanzanite. Kenwyn House also boasts a notable Fine Art Gallery which exhibits paintings of Seychellois artists. Clothes, bags and accessories are also on sale.

For a great selection of authentic “Made in Seychelles” products, the Artisanal Kiosque is the ideal place. Beach wears, hats, jewelry, bags, paintings, house ornaments, spices, corals and shells are all available.

Leaving behind the town, take a trip to the more quiet part of the island in the South of the island. Boasting some of the islands best beaches such as Anse Intendance, Anse Soleil and Anse Takamaka, the art galleries are equally fascinating. A stop at the Craft Village will introduce you to variety of locally made products.

For lunch, the small beachside restaurants propose the typical and rare Creole cuisine you will not find in Top restaurants, made with recipes inherited throughout the generations.

After a sumptuous lunch enjoy a relaxing afternoon on the beach before going back to your hotel.

Day 3: Paradise Sun

Breakfast at the hotel

Transfer to the jetty

Board our high speed catamaran, the Cat Cocos to Praslin. Enjoy the 1 hr boat ride before reaching the second largest island of our Archipelago, Praslin.

A warm welcome by Creole Travel Services and transfer to your hotel, a large 4 star located on one of the nicest beaches on Praslin, Cote d'or.

Day at leisure at the hotel: The unspoiled beach of Cote d'or is a wide expanse of white sand and crystal clear waters. Refresh your body with a swim and enjoy one of the many water sports available such as kayaks and windsurfing.

If you want to try your luck at diving, the hotel boasts the best diving centre on the island.

Otherwise, you can go on a tour of the island and discover the many beaches and coves. A must see is the famous Anse Lazio which is considered one of the most beautiful beaches in the world. White sand, big granite boulders and turquoise waters, it is simply impossible for you not be amazed by this beauty.

After a day of discovery or amusement at the hotel, pamper yourself at the Spa. Unwind and let the massages of the therapist sooth your body and mind. A wide selection of treatments is available to suit your need. After this rejuvenation, why not treat yourself to a facial, a manicure or pedicure? Or why not all three?

Watch the fabulous sunset on board the Sunset Cruise, compliments of the hotel while sipping an exotic cocktail.

Day 4: Paradise Sun

Breakfast at the hotel

Join Creole Travel Services on “The two Island Melody” excursion, a combination of Praslin and La Digue. Your first visit is of the legendary Vallée de Mai, a nature reserve protected by UNESCO which is home of the world’s biggest nut the Coco de Mer and the rare black parrot as well as a large numbers of exotic flora and faunas.

You will next board the ferry to the smallest of the 3 main islands, La Digue, a place unspoiled by modern man and where the rhythm of life is as slow as their mode of transport, the oxcart.

After warm welcome by Creole Travel Services and a refreshing coconut drink, your tour will begin. L’Union Estate Park, a tropical garden surrounded by big granite boulders where coprah is made. This includes the drying of the coconut flesh which later grinded to extract the oil.

The next stop is Anse Source d’Argent, another one of the world’s most beautiful beaches which has played host to several adverts and photo shoots. An unspoiled beach with still turquoise waters with imposing granite boulders, it is very difficult to find a duplicate of Anse Source d’Argent.

Lunch will be at the beachside restaurant of your choice and you can later while the afternoon away on the beach.

Boarding the ferry again you will go back to Praslin and to your hotel.
